

Engaging International Students

A way to improve and amplify the student (International) experience

Marty Lock

Manager, International Engagement &
Communications

Our Story

Who and what we do...

Key impacts on the journey

- The key facts
- Why is it important?
- Addressing the main issues

Supporting Diversity

- The Language we use
- Sharing the Experiences
- New Habits
- Learn from our mistakes

Understand the student journey

Four key Stages:

- Pre- Enrolment
- Start of Study
- During Study
- Completion of Study

A new stage to develop

- Alumni?

Prevention vs. Intervention

- Early at Risk detection
- Address the matter early
- Establish clear parameters / goals
- Follow up / Surveys
- Evaluate the success

Build an inclusive ecosystem

- All Stakeholders hold the key
- Respect
- Empathy
- Fairness
- Accountability

Make it fun

Key Takeaway points

- Take the Time
- Regular Check-ins
- Beware of your own cultural biases.
- Engage early to prevent long term issues.

Thank you

Marty Lock

Manager, International Engagement and Communication

